IMSO BULLETIN

BULLETIN No.: 07 – 005

DATE: FEBRUARY 13, 2007

Subject: Potential Identity Theft Threat

Effective Date: Immediately

BULLETIN TYPE:	X	Action		Policy		Information
		New		Modification		Cancellation

Summary:

A 29 January 2007 warning on the SAN Website cautions all SAN users against responding to an e-mail from a bogus source, the “San Abuse Department”. This warning is repeated here for emphasis:

WARNING: If you receive an e-mail from the "San Abuse Department" asking to confirm your e-mail address, disregard and delete the message. IT DID NOT COME FROM THE SAN. Such messages should always be ignored - never provide your userid or password outside the normal system login and password change screens.

Action:

1. IMSOs should be aware of this potential threat to the on-line security of the SAN, and delete any such e-mails from “San Abuse Department”.
2. IMSOs should share this information with any other staff members at their learning site who utilize the SAN Web
